PORTS OF CALL

These are highlights of the cities you'll be visiting. Shore excursions are available for these sights as well as many others at an additional cost.

Eastport, Maine

Eastport, Maine, is a charming seaside town known for its dramatic Bay of Fundy tides, rich maritime history, and vibrant arts scene. Once a bustling sardine canning hub, today it draws visitors with whale watching, coastal beauty, and quirky events like the Pirate Festival and sardine drop on New Year's Eve. Its historic downtown, friendly locals, and sweeping ocean views offer a peaceful escape with small-town character. Whether you're chasing the first sunrise, exploring tide pools, or enjoying local creativity, Eastport delivers a uniquely salty, scenic, and soul-soothing Downeast experience.

Portland, Maine

Portland offers all the amenities of a big city: art districts, a vibrant waterfront, museums, parks and diverse shopping opportunities. But within minutes, you can be enjoying the view from an historic lighthouse or tasting a juicy, local lobster.

Saint John, Bay of Fundy, New Brunswick

Saint John's history is evident in its weather-worn look, passing the tests of salt air, sea winds and a devastating fire that have all contributed to making Saint John the greatest little city in the east. Be sure to look for your ship in the port against the beauty of the Bay of Fundy from Fort Howe lookout.

Halifax, Nova Scotia

Admire the rugged coastline that surrounds Halifax, the world's second-largest natural harbor. This beautifully preserved city is Nova Scotia's capital and was founded in 1749. Take steps through history and climb to The Citadel to witness the Old Town Clock.
