History

In 1997 the Roswell Ramblers were formed from two groups; the Golden Endeavors of East Roswell Recreation Center and the Roswell Pacesetters from Roswell Area Park. Both clubs were allowed to move into the Roswell River Landing and merged to create the Roswell Ramblers Club. In 2000, the Ramblers moved into the ARC and in 2002 the first Ramblers executive board was nominated and elected by the membership to assist in club operations.

About the ARC

The more than 18,000 square foot Roswell Adult Recreation Center (ARC), includes a billiards room, computer learning center, art room, break room, ballroom, and a new expansion in 2012 includes a fitness facility with cardio and weight machines, stretching area, aerobics room, and showers. The ARC is a focal point where active adults have a place for large functions, educational seminars, fitness programs, cultural programs, craft programs, social events and other needs. The ARC was funded by HUD Fulton County Community Development Block Grant, the Roswell Recreation Association and the City of Roswell.
